

Departmental Examination on Law and Statutory Rules

1. The Departmental examination on Law and Statutory Rules shall comprise one paper carrying one hundred marks.
2. The syllabus shall, consists of the following subjects, namely:—
 - (i) the Registration Act, 1908 (as amended upto-date), the rules framed thereunder, the table of fees prescribed thereunder and all the Acts and rules having a bearing on the Registration Act, 1908 and
 - (ii) the Indian Stamp Act (as amended up to date), the rules framed thereunder and the orders issued thereunder.
3. The examination shall be of three hours duration.
4. The examinees shall be allowed to avail of the assistance of unannotated editions of the Acts, Rules and orders.
5. Examinees who obtain not less than fifty per cent of the marks shall be deemed to have passed.”

['No. 74421—Regn -11/83-R.]

By order of the Governor

RAJENDRA KISHORE PANDA

Additional Secretary to Government